FeMS Empowerment Awards
We are pleased to announce the 2021 Q4 awardees. Congratulations!
- Gina Barbosa, Central Mindanao University, Philippines
- Federica Fiorini, Centre Hospitalier Universitaire Grenoble Alpes, France
- Erin Humphries, University of Sydney, Australia
- Manasi Kamat, University of Florida, United States
- Stephanie Rankin-Turner, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, United States
- Khawla Seddiki, Université Laval, Canada

Check the website soon for Q1 2022 application!

FeMS Mentor Pod - Round 2!
For the Round 2 mentorship, FeMS welcomes 172 mentees and 66 mentors from 14 different time zones. There are 23 mentor pods, covering Asia/Australia, Europe, and America. Pod coordinator training has been completed, and pod meetings will begin in mid November!

FeMS Events at ASMS2021
Nov 1st 7:00 - 9:00 pm (Convention Ctr Rm 117)
Dinner honoring Amina Woods. Sponsored by MassTech Inc. and FeMS. Pre-registration required.

Nov. 3rd 5:45-7:00 pm (Convention Ctr Rm 108 AB)
Workshop 08 - Networking for Scientists: Celebrating Women Mass Spectrometrists

Nov. 3rd 7:30 - 9:30 pm (Strangelove’s)
Evening networking event, sponsored by MOBI Lion Systems. Pre-registration required.

Nov. 3rd 8 pm (gather.town)
Virtual fun night of networking and games! Pre-registration required.
FeMS Transition Talks

Graduate students and post docs in MS-related fields within one year of transition are welcome to sign up to give a 10-min FeMS transition talks.

SIGN UP NOW!

About FeMS

Females in Mass Spectrometry (FeMS) is a community-led initiative to create a network of support for women in the field of mass spectrometry. FeMS supports related events anywhere women in mass spectrometry happen to be gathered, be it a virtual gathering, regional conference, international event, campus, or anything in between. Check out the FeMS website for upcoming events, and recordings of past events.

FeMS Sponsors

https://femalesinms.com/